[Em] I've got a [D] mule, and her [G] name is [Em] Sal
[Em] Fifteen miles on the [B7] Ashby Ca-[Em]nal
She's a [Em] good ol' [D] worker an' a [G] good ol' [Em] pal
[Em] Fifteen miles on the [B7] Ashby Ca-[Em]nal

We've [G] hauled some barges in our [D] day
[Am] Filled with lumber, coal, and [Em] hay
[Em] And we know [D] every [G] inch of the [Em] way
[Em] From Ashby to [B7] Snare-[Em]stone

[G] Low bridge, everybody [D] down
[G] Low bridge, for we're comin' [D] through a [Em] town
And you'll al-[Em]ways know your neigh-[D]bour
You'll al-[G]ways know your [Em] pal
[Em] If you've ever navigated on the [B7] Ashby Ca-[Em]nal

We'd [Em] better look a-[D]round for a [G] job, ol' [Em] gal
[Em] Fifteen miles on the [B7] Ashby Ca-[Em]nal
'Cause you [Em] bet your [D] life I'd [G] never part with [Em] Sal
[Em] Fifteen miles on the [B7] Ashby Ca-[Em]nal

[G] Git up there, mule, here [D] comes a lock
[Am] We'll make Rome 'bout six o'-[Em]clock
[Em] One more [D] trip and [G] back we'll [Em] go
[Em] Right back home to [B7] Snare-s-[Em]-tone

[G] Low bridge, everybody [D] down
[G] Low bridge, for we're comin' [D] through a [Em] town
And you'll al-[Em]ways know your neigh-[D]bour
You'll al-[G]ways know your [Em] pal
[Em] If you've ever navigated on the [B7] Ashby Ca-[Em]nal
