Leader to sing verses

(D) Now some folks like to boast of their father's occu(A)pation,
Dustmen and the likes, (A7) and other situ(D) ations.
Not so, our old man, working was 'is (A) pride,
In 'obnailed boots and gaiters, (A7) and a dung fork at 'is (D) side.

Chorus: ALL SING

(D) Hi Ho, fiddle - iddle- o, Chesterfield to (A) Cheddar,
Hi Ho, the folks all know, he's a (A7) champion dung-(D)spreader (as *)

Leader

(D) Now many years ago, when Dad was in 'is (A)power,
With a mighty two-hand swipe (A7) he hit the old church (D) tower!
"Lord help us," cried the vicar, "Tis the judgement (A) come!"
"Not so," said the verger, (A7) "Tis a hundredweight of (D) dung!"

Repeat chorus: ALL SING

Leader

(D) Now his aim was straight and true, when 'is arms start a-(A) flailin'
We'd all look out the way, when they girt brown lumps (D) go sailin'.
Just leave our old man where the dung lies piled up (A) thick,
And he'll make it fly for miles (A7) with 'is girt big blackthorn (D) stick!

Repeat chorus : ALL SING

Leader

(D) Now as you all can see, father was quite con(A) tented
He had the finest job, (A7) since work it was in(D) vented!
And when our old man laid him down to (A) die,
In a forty acre field, (A7) with the dung piled six foot (D) high!

ALL SING

(D) Hi Ho, fiddle - iddle- o, Chesterfield to (A) Cheddar,
Hi Ho, the folks all know, he's a (A7) champion dung-(D)spreader

(D) Hi Ho, fiddle - iddle- o, Chesterfield to (A) Cheddar,
