

as recorded by Debbie Reynolds

Harmonica intro

Domi-[C]nique, nique, nique, I will [F] tell of Dominique
His [C] goodness to ac-[G]claim [G]
And I [C] pray the song I sing, will some [F] simple pleasure bring
That the [C] world shall [G] know his [C] name [C]

I will [F] tell of Domi-[C]nique as I [G] sing this little [C] song
And [D] when I sing the chorus all the [D7] world will sing a-[G]long [G]

Domi-[C]nique, nique, nique, it was [F] good Saint Dominique
He [C] lived for you and [G] me [G]
From the [C] labours long ago, came a [F] better world I know
And his [C] love shall [G] always [C] be [C]

"Though I'm [F] poor" said Domi-[C]nique, as he [G] spoke unto the [C] Lord
"I will [D] be your humble servant, and your [D7] love is my re-[G]ward" [G]

Domi-[C]nique, nique, nique, I will [F] follow Dominique
His [C] burdens will I [G] share [G]
For his [C] courage will I pray, his [F] teachings to obey
His [C] words shall [G] be my [C] prayer [C]

By the [F] kindness of his [C] heart, and the [G] labour of his [C] hand
He brought [D] love and understanding as he [D7] wandered through the [G] land [G]

Domi-[C]nique, nique, nique, I will [F] tell of Dominique
His [C] goodness to ac-[G]claim [G]
And I [C] pray the song I sing, will some [F] simple pleasure bring
All the [C] world shall [G] know his [C] name [C]

Domi-[F]nique the mighty [C] warrior was a [G] soldier of the [C] Lord
His [D] armour was devotion and the [D7] Gospel was his [G] sword [G]

Harmonica break as

Domi-[C]nique, nique, nique, it was [F] good Saint Dominique
He [C] lived for you and [G] me [G]
From his [C] labours long ago, came a [F] better world I know
And his [C] love shall [G] always [C] be [C]

Through the [F] blazing heat of [C] summer, and the [G] chill of winter [C] snow
I will [D] follow Dominique, in his [D7] footsteps I will [G] go [G]

Domi-[C]nique, nique, nique, I will [F] follow Dominique
His [C] burdens will I [G] share [G]
For his [C] courage will I pray, his [F] teachings to obey
His [C] words shall [G] be my [C]↓ prayer [G]↓ [C]↓