

George W. Johnson and James Austin Butterfield

C C7 F
I wondered today to the hill Maggie
C G7
To watch the scene below
C C7 F
The creek and the creaking old mill Maggie
C G7 C C7
As we use to long long ago

F C
The green grove is gone from the hill Maggie
G7 D7 G7
Where first the daisies sprung
C C7 F
That creaking old mill is still Maggie
C G7 C
Since you and I were young

C7 F
Oh they say that Im feeble with age Maggie
C G7
My steps are much slower than then
C C7 F
My face is a well written page Maggie
C G7 C C7
And time all alone was the pen

F C
They say we have our different time Maggie
G7 D7 G7
As they hear our song that we sung
C C7 F
But to me you're the same as you were Maggie
C G7 C
When you and I were young

F C G7 C
When you and I were young
