

One Glance Passing

RT 1/2

Intro. Am C G Am F C G

Am C G Am
Wandrin' streets alone again, aimless thoughts in mind, I gotta
F C G
Empty head, empty heart, nowhere to hide, I can see now
F C E7 Am - F
Yeh I've been a fool all these years, I'm the one to blame, for thinking that
C G Am F
Being alone brings freedom, a spirit with no ties
C G F G C
But the sands of time will soon run out, like one glance passing by

Instrumental C G F C

Am C G Am
I looked in all the usual places, it surely can't be so hard, to find
F C G
Someone to share, someone to love, give up my foolish pride, but when
F C E7 Am - F
We met that time in the cafe, you took me for a bragging fool, I was
C G Am F
Misunderstood, the chance was gone, yet another wish denied
C G F C
The hope slipped through my fingers, like one glance passing by

F G Am
I wanted you to love me, I was trying to win your heart, but a
F C G
Wrong interpretation went and drove us apart
F G Am - F
I tried too hard to sell myself, I know I'm the one to blame
C G F G 234
A failed infatuation was all that would remain

Instrumental break per verse

Am C G Am
 I learned the lesson that what you say isn't always what you mean, now
 F C G
 I've gone back to that lonely café, I've kept out of your scene, but then
 F C E7 Am - F
 Staring into my coffee I heard your voice whispering in my ear, saying
 C G Am F
 Just be yourself, don't play a part, no need to live a lie
 C G F C
 Then you'll find that I might love you more than one glance passing by

Outro F C E7 Am- F C G F C FFC
