[C] Anyone who's played on a record date
[C] Will remember Stage Door [F] Jenny
[G7] Well, I saw her last night [G7] and man
She looked like she wasn't gettin' [C] any [C] Rock and roll kinda took its toll
[C] When she shed her inhi-[F]bitions
[G7] Too many scenes in a Limousine
[G7] And dressing room inter-[C]missions [C]

[C] She was the [F] queen of nineteen [C] sixty four [C] But the [G7] truth of the matter is [F] Nobody wants her any [C] more
[C] There was a [F] time she could've [C] shown you how
[C] But [G7] nobody wants an [F] overage groupie [C] now [C]

[C] When it came to a superstar
[C] Jenny was a [F] bragger
[G7] She spread it all around to everyone in town
[G7] That she once had Mick [C] Jagger
[C] But there's no doubt when the truth comes out
[C] True love will over [F] conquer
[G7] She didn't get Mick, but she got a kick
[G7] And a black eye from [C] Bianca [C]

[C] She was the [F] queen of nineteen [C] sixty four [C] What a [G7] pity she became a [F] shadow of the girl she [C]
was before
[C] She passed her [F] prime it seems a [C] shame, somehow
[C] But [G7] nobody wants an [F] overage groupie [C] now [C]

[C] I'm afraid that the Morning Trade

[C] Had a sad obit-[F]uary

[G7] There'll be no more Jenny at the door

[G7] They took her to the [C] cemetery

[C] Just an autograph book and a stereo

[C] There was no one she was close [F] to

[G7] She was found with her arms around an Elvis Presley [C] poster [C]

[C] She was the [F] queen of nineteen [C] sixty four

To [G7] night there'll be a moment of [F] silence at the [C] Troubadour

[C] There was a [F] time she could've [C] shown you how

[C] But [G7] nobody wants an [F] overage groupie [C] now

[C] But [G7] nobody wants an [F] overage groupie [C] now
