INTRO DON'T SING (A) Oh, what a (E7) beauty – (B7) I've never seen one (E7) as big as that bef(A)ore)

(A) There's a man lives down in the street I'd like you all to (E7) know
He grew a great big marrow for the local farmers (A) show
When the story got around, they came from far and (E7) wide
(B7) When they saw the size of it, everybody (E7) cried :

Chorus: ALL SING

(A) Oh, what a beauty! I've never seen one as big as that (E7) before!
Oh, what a beauty! It must be two foot long or even (A) more.
Such a lovely (A7) colour, (D) so nice and round and fat;
I (B7) never thought a marrow could (E7) grow as big as that.
(A) Oh, what a (F#7) beauty – (B7) I've never seen one (E7) as big as that bef(A)ore.

(A) He was leaning on his garden gate the other (E7)day,
He beckoned to a lady who lived just across the (A) way,
He took her down the garden path and showed her it with (E7)pride
(B7) When she saw the size of it that little lady (E7)cried :

Repeat Chorus ALL SING

(A)Then the feller showed it again and everybody (E7)went
To see his great big marrow lying there inside the (A) tent.
Then the judges came around to give the prizes (E7)out
(B7) They only took one look at it, and they began to (E7)shout :
