Intro strum F G G7 C G7 (as last line of verse)

Well, you [C] wouldn't read my letters if I [F] wrote you, you [G] asked me not to [G7] call you on the [C] phone.
Well, there's something I've been waiting for to [F] tell you, so I [G] wrote it in the [G7] words of a [C] song.

Now the [C] glamour of that gay, wild life has [F] lured you to the [G] places where the [G7] wine and liquor [C] flow.
Well, you went to be some body else's [F] baby, and for [G] get the truest [G7] love you'll ever [C] know.

I never [C] knew there were honky-tonk [F] angels, oh, I [G] might have know you'd [G7] never make a [C] wife.
You gave up the only one that ever [F] loved you, [D]
and went [G] back to that [G7] wild side of [C] life.

Now the [C] glamour of that gay, wild life has [F] lured you to the [G] places where the [G7] wine and liquor [C] flow.
